No.	Statement	Score
1	Goal Clarity: Goals and objectives are clearly understood and accepted by all members.
2	Participation: Everyone is involved and heard during group discussions. There is no "tyranny of a minority".
3	Consultation: Team members are consulted on matters concerning them.
4	Decision Making: The group is both objective and effective at reaching decisions.
5	Roles & Responsibilities: When action is planned, clear assignments are made and accepted.
6	Procedures: The team has clear rules, methods and procedures to guide it. There are agreed-to methods for problem solving.
7	Communications: Communication between members is open and honest. Members listen actively.
8	Confront Difficulties: Difficult or uncomfortable issues are openly worked through, and conflicts are not avoided.
9	Openness and Trust: Team members are open in their transactions, and there are no hidden agendas. Members feel free to be candid.
10	Commitment: Team members are committed to deadlines, meetings and other team activities.
11	Support: Members pull for and help each other, including when one person makes a mistake.
12	Risk Taking: Individuals feel they can try new things and risk failure. The team encourages risk taking.
